Mary,

Appreciate the extra information, I am quite interested as these folk are (very) distant cousins of mine. I also see that we are distant cousins - I've got to say that I don't have too many live ones that I've uncovered.

A couple of questions if you don't mind:

1. I suspect I know the answer to this, but I have to ask: do you have any information on the ancestry of either John or Fanny?
2. Do you know the year/port/ship on which they immigrated"
3. Were they married in America or before they immigrated?
4. Do you have softcopy census images for any of the direct descents shown below (or their locations at the time of particular censuses)?
5. Is there anything additional you want from me? (I feel I've learned a lot more of use to me from you than you have learned from me.)

Regards,
Floyd

Dear Ms. Nunneley,

Your email is of great interest to me. I know a certain amount about Isaac's time in Ohio before going to Texas, and I know who Patsey McGary is. I have never been able to establish which of Patsey, Jane, Betsey, and Fannie McGary, all of whom married in the same area between 1807 and 1814, was NOT Isaac's sister.

Isaac's daughter Fannie (named for her grandmother and her aunt), who left a long memoir, has an account of a trip that Isaac took to Ohio in 1856 to visit his sisters, the only such trip home of which there is any record. But I knew nothing of John's will. Nor do I know what became of Isaac's first wife, Eleanor Markland.

You are correct that there are a certain number of errors in what little is published about Isaac McGary. I can most likely steer you away from the erroneous information.

I would be very interesting in speaking by telephone about our research if you are inclined to do so.

Best regards,

Mr. Blakeslee,
Thank you for your contact pertaining to Isaac McGary. I continue to do research on Isaac and since my original post in 2003 have made contact with Robert Gillespie of Columbus, TX who has kindly shared a great deal of information concerning Isaac, including a large number of family pictures.
I descend from Martha "Patsey" McGary (dau of John and Fanny McGary) who married Edward Popejoy on 13 Jan 1814 in Butler Co. OH. Martha is a sister of Isaac McGary.
Some of the published material concerning Isaac McGary appears to be in error. I do believe he was born on 19 Jan 1800 in Butler Co. OH and died 21 Jun1866, in probably, Galveston, TX. He had three marriages....#1 Eleanor Markland...#2 Elizabeth B. Word and probably, #3 Eleanor Powell.
With the exception of the well-known Austin McGary, I have little knowledge of his children.
The will of Isaac's father, John McGary is found at Will Book A, pages 43/44/45/46/47 in Fulton Co.

IN, dated 25 Sep 1847, he apparently being a resident of Marshall Co. IN. The will of John McGary lists all of the children with the exception of Isaac. I rather wonder if the family had lost contact with Isaac since he was so early in Texas ??
I appreciate your contact and offer to share information.
Please note my new e-mail address and will soon discontinue the AOL address.

Mary,

Appreciate the extra information, I am quite interested as these folk are (very) distant cousins of mine. I also see that we are distant cousins - I've got to say that I don't have too many live ones that I've uncovered.

A couple of questions if you don't mind:

1. I suspect I know the answer to this, but I have to ask: do you have any information on the ancestry of either John or Fanny?
2. Do you know the year/port/ship on which they immigrated"
3. Were they married in America or before they immigrated?
4. Do you have softcopy census images for any of the direct descents shown below (or their locations at the time of particular censuses)?
5. Is there anything additional you want from me? (I feel I've learned a lot more of use to me from you than you have learned from me.)

Regards,
Floyd

This is great. Appreciate the transcription of the will.

Glad you got my pictures. I have many more - just let me know what you are interested in. (Unfortunately, they're mostly of gravestones.)

Sanford Gordon / he signs

James P. Edwards / he signs

Definite proof that John McGary was the father of Francis "Fanny" McGary Bayliss, as he even names some of her children.

An interesting note.....several years ago, I copied some wonderful picture posted in 1999 Floyd B. Mitman, III. They were great pictures of many old Bayless people.

Isaac McGary (son of Rev. John and Francis "Fanny" McGary)

Married:
#1 / Eleanor Markland in Ohio before 1822. Deeds in Hamilton Co. OH support this marriage, but no record has been found. No known children.

Married:
#2 / Elinor Powell on 14 Jan 1830 in Austin Co. TX / I have been told that the Republic of Texas "granted papers" to end this marriage. A divorce would not have been possible in Catholic Texas at that time. No known children.

Married:
#3 / Elizabeth B. Word on 17 Feb 1842 in Montgomery Co. TX Elizabeth was born in Tennessee, per census records. I do not know the name of her first husband, but the 1850 census for Walker Co. TX (pages 276B /277) show the children of Isaac and Elizabeth and living in the household is a Sarah Word, age 14, born Tennessee.

The Handbook of Texas Online states that Isaac McGary married Elizabeth Visier, a French immigrant. I believe this is an error. Census records show her born in Tennessee.

Hope this helps your research.

Thank you so much for recording this information from Oakwood Cemetery in Huntsville. She is my daughter's fourth great grandmother. I am curious about where you found the marriage date for her marriage to Isaac McGary. Was it on her headstone, or did you have access to other records? I would appreciate any information you can give me.

Thank you.

Hi Mary,

I just wanted you to know I did get your email. I am in the middle of Corporate taxes and won't finish those until late monday. Then I have to start on figuring out personal. So unfortunately I won't be able to look this up for a little bit. I'll keep you in my in box to remind me and I'll get to it sometime next week. If I didn't have numbers and names floating in my mind I'd probably be able to remember how I came by it. lol

I found your name as a volunteer look-up for Shasta Co. CA. I am would certainly be willing to pay you for the following obituaries if you can locate them:

Edward Popejoy Conner
Born / 18 Feb 1842 / Fayette Co. OH
Died / 7 Jan 1928 / (Shasta Co. CA - probably in Redding)
Buried / 11 Jan 1928 / Cemetery unknown / Shasta Co. CA

James G. Conner
Born / 29 Jun 1866 / Ohio
Died / 11 May 1948 / (Shasta Co. CA - probably in Redding)
Buried / unknow / Shasta Co. CA

Edward and his son, James G. Conner owned and were involved in many mining adventures in Shasta Co. from the late 1880s until their deaths.

Your help will certainly be appreciated. Let me know what the charge for these two obituaries might be. Also, can you please inform me where I might find wills or probates for both men in Shasta County.

Thanks much,

This cemetery is located on the southwest corner of Route 41 and Creamer road. It is being mowed and has some of the oldest legible stones that we have seen. However, it was vandalized three or four years ago and the old stones were knocked down and broken up. Jack and Peggy Gilmore started reading this cemetery the 19th of April 2001.

EARL R. HOGAN, Recorder

you can see in first tranaction that John McGary had his name spelled McGary and McGara part of the time. These had been copied into these volumes years ago and when the y ran into print in lower line it looked like McGara.

The writing is so old it is hard to read. Also Eleanor was spelled several ways but she was ~~ø~~ probably Eleanor Markland before she married.

bacher. Thomas, son of Peter Meredith, was prob.
he second. He was born July 17, 1838, and is now a nt of the State of Kansas.
e first death was that of Mr. Wilson, who died in the f 1840 and was buried at Rochester. About the year 1839, haps 1840, a lot was donated to the township by John ary, for a public cemetery. It was the first in the town-and during the intervening years has received within ld many who were among the oldest and most active ns. It is situated in Section 14, and known as the hter Cemetery."
1839, the first mill in the township was erected by Job dith, on the bank of Yellow Creek. It was a saw mill, nany residences still extant in the township were con-ed of timber sawed at this mill. "In 1840 or 1841, he l a carding mill, but only operated the latter for a few
. He operated the saw mill until his death, when it urchased by Peter Meredith, and operated until a few ago.
saw mill was erected in 1847 by Samuel Hege, on the of a smaller stream, then called Hege's Creek. It was after his death, and having outlived its usefulness, was doned a few years later. In 1852, a saw mill was erected ohn Kendall, on the little stream known as Chippewa
. It was operated quite successfully for a number of , but finally abandoned.
he flouring mill at Bloomingsburg was erected in 1852 mbrose Meredith. It was sold by him, a few years later, aleb Montgomery, and from him it passed into the owner-of various parties, and finally to Dr. N. J. Clynmer, the ent proprietor. It has been remodeled at various times, now ranks among the best mills in the county.

SCHOOLS.

n the winter of 1839–40, Ambrose Meredith conducted a ol in his own house. This was the first school ever taught in township, and according to the usual custom of the times, sustained by private subscription. During the following ng, the citizens erected a log schoolhouse on the Ambrose edith farm, and Mr. Meredith was engaged to teach ing the next term.
On the Decatur Irvin farm, a similar building was erected 842 or 1843, and another was erected on the John Culver in 1842, and Robert Gordon was engaged as teacher.
ut the same time, a log schoolhouse was erected on the uel Ball farm, and another on the farm of George ns. These were all sustained by a tuition fund tributed by the parents of children who attended schools. About the year 1845, the township was divided school districts, and the public money in the hands of township trustees was applied in partial payment of the ol expenses, after which schoolhouses were erected in of the several districts. From this time there was a ceptible improvement in the condition of the schools, which gone steadily onward in the intervening years.
South of the S. H. Farry farm, in Section 23, a log oolhouse was erected in 1845 or 1846, in which only a few ns had been taught when the patrons became dissatisfied h the action of the trustees in the division of the district, the school was demoralized and broken up in consequence this strife. The citizens chiefly interested then united in erection of a schoolhouse, maintaining a school at their n expense. By the action of the trustees, the old building been torn down, and some of its former scholars assigned another district, somewhat remote from their homes. The building was erected on the site of the old, and was led "Independence Schoolhouse," from the spirit in which was built, as well as from the fact that it was independent the control exercised by the trustees over the township ools. It had the best of teachers, and it is said that no ool in the township ever had a more prosperous existence a larger enrollment of scholars. It was maintained thus private patronage for a number of years until the present e school law became operative, and in 1856 this building s succeeded by Center Schoolhouse.
The adoption of the provisions made for free public edu-tion by the revised Constitution of 1851, was the beginning a new era, during which the schools have reached a high gree of perfection and usefulness. A small tax is levied r their support, and only persons of ability are eligible to position of teacher, while their benefits are free to all ho have the disposition to enjoy them. The township is vided into nine districts, in each of which there is a subantial frame school building, while school is taught during period of from three to six months each year.

CHURCHES.

In 1839, the first religious exercises were conducted at the ouse of Job Meredith. A stranger rode up to the house one vening, and with the cordial hospitality that characterized hose early times, he was invited in. During his short stay, t was ascertained that he was a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and his host prevailed on him to stay and lead the ittle community in public worship. The neighbors were aprised of his presence, and assembled to enjoy the rites of which they had been thus far deprived in their forest home.
The minister departed on the following day, leaving an wakened interest in the cause of religion, and to his visit, perhaps, is attributable the early organization of the Yellow Creek Baptist Church, which was the first organization in the ownship.

Yellow Creek Baptist Church.—Late in the fall of 1839, Rev. James Martin, of Kosciusko County, held services in the cabin of Job Meredith, and visited this vicinity frequently thereafter for a number of years. During the period of his ministry (in July, 1840), an organization was effected under the name of Yellow Creek Church, which has grown and prospered encouragingly during the intervening years. Job Meredith and wife, Robert Meredith and wife, Robert Meredith and wife, Keziah Meredith, Elizabeth Meredith, Rebecca Meredith, James Garvin and Thomas Meredith and wife were the original members. For a period of ten years after organization, the society had no permanent house of worship, but met at the homes of its members. In 1850, however, Peter Meredith donated an acre of ground for a church and cemetery, upon which, in the same year, was erected a frame house of worship, in which services were conducted for a period of twenty-three years. In 1873, the present house of worship was erected on the same lot, but on the opposite side of the road. The church is now under the pastoral care of Rev. E. M. McGraw, and has a membership of 220.

Bethlehem Baptist Church.—This church was organized in the winter of 1874–75, by thirty-two members, who were formerly identified with Yellow Creek Church, but, living somewhat remote from the latter, desired to have religious privileges nearer home. For a few years they held services in a schoolhouse in the eastern part of the township, but finally a lot was donated by Isaac Meredith, upon which, in the summer of 1880, they completed a neat frame house of worship. The church is growing steadily, and is now under the pastoral care of Rev. E. M. McGraw.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church.—In the fall of 1849, Rev. C. Sturcken came from Logansport and held religious services in the Irvin Schoolhouse, according to the rites of the Lutheran Church, and visited his charge regularly thereafter at intervals of four weeks. Early in the year 1850, an organization was effected at the house of George Perschbacher, Sr., with the following constituent members, viz.: George Perschbacher, Sr., and wife, Nicholas King, Sr., and wife, Jacob Stockberger and wife, John Kesler and wife, Jacob Mechling and wife, John Mechling, Daniel Swineheart, Solomon Dumbauld and wife, George Stockberger and wife, Solomon Stockberger, Paul Stockberger, Samuel Mechling and wife, Sallie Stockberger and Daniel Wagoner and wife. For a time a neighboring schoolhouse was used as a house of worship; at other times the meetings would be held in the house of one of the members, and thus, for a period of thirteen years, they had only temporary places of meeting. In 1863, however, they erected the present house of worship on land donated for that purpose by Jacob Stockberger. It is a neat frame building, 34x50 feet, and was erected at a cost of $1,450. Rev. Mr. Sturcken continued in the pastoral office for several years, and was succeeded by Rev. T. W. Corbet, who was the pastor when the church was erected. He was succeeded after several years by Rev. A. V. House. Rev. I. Hursh succeeded Mr. House four years later, and remained but one year. At the end of that time Mr. House returned, and remained until June, 1879, when he was succeeded by Rev. A. E. Gift, the present pastor. The church is in prosperous condition, with a membership of between forty and fifty persons.

The Methodist Episcopal Church.—In 1841, Rev. Ansel Beach visited the settlement and conducted services in Joel Culver's house, and in the fall of that year a class was organized. It lacked vitality, however, and was disorganized after a brief existence. In 1844 or 1845, Rev. D. F. Stright conducted services in the house of Samuel Hege, and about the same time organized a class at the house of John S. Mow, which has preserved its identity ever since, although it has never become strong enough to erect or own a house of worship. The meetings are now held in the Barkman Schoolhouse, by Rev Mr. Rush, pastor of the circuit. Another class was organized by Rev. D. F. Stright, in 1846, in the east part of the township. For five or six years the meetings were held at the house of James N. Love, but its members united with other societies in later years, and the class was disorganized.

The United Brethren organized a class in 1849 or 1850, at the house of Samuel Hege, who had then severed his connection with the Methodist Church. The meetings were held at his house till his death, and afterward in the village of Bloomingsburg. The class existed for about ten years, but from various causes it failed to prosper, and was finally disorganized.

Sycamore Chapel.—In 1857 or 1858, Elder Alexander Thompson, of the Disciples Church, organized a society of that denomination at the Black Schoolhouse, and for about ten years this schoolhouse was the place at which the meetings were held. At the end of that time, the meeting place was transferred to Popular Seminary in Koscinsko County. Hartman Horn donated a lot in 1872, upon which the society erected a neat frame house of worship in the same year, at a cost of about $1,500, and the new church was denominated "Sycamore Chapel." It has prospered from the first, and now has between sixty and seventy members enrolled.

Elder William Shaw was the pastor when the church was built, and among those who have since served the church in that capacity are Elders Jayne, Grissom, Marshall, McKinsey, and Abner Snow, the present pastor.

Bloomingsburg Disciple Church.—The present house of worship was erected in 1874, on land donated by M. Van Buren Coplip, just across the river from the village of Bloomingsburg. The society was organized in 1868, in the schoolhouse two miles north of the village, the meetings being held there until the church was completed. Elder Dixon was the pastor in charge when the church was erected, and continued to act in that relation until his decease. He was succeeded by Elder Thomas Whitman, whose successors have been, respectively, Elder Samuel McNealy, Elder O. Meredith and Elder Fowler. A fine organization has been maintained from the first, and the church is now in prosperous condition. Elder D. W. Fowler is the pastor in charge at the present time, the church membership being eighty.

Bloomingsburg Lodge, No. 516, I. O. O. F., was organized on the 18th of November, 1875, with the following charter members, viz.: H. Bowman, H. Ingledue, H. Windbigler, L. Chapman, N. J. Clymer, J. L. Meredith, J. J. Taylor, J. M. Davenport and S. P. Hodge. The officers first elected were N. J. Clymer, N. G.; J. J. Taylor, V. G.; J. L. Meredith, Sec. The first meeting was held in a building owned by George Kesler and Alonzo Stukey, and for several years the order had no lodge room that it could call its own. Finally, however, the members decided to erect a lodge room and elected Lewis Ely, Hiram Horn and Silas Fisher trustees, and to the energetic efforts of these gentlemen the lodge is indebted for the prosecution and successful completion of the undertaking. The lodge had then only about $400 in the treasury, and with a capital so limited the trustees entered upon the erection of a hall to cost $1,200. By personal efforts and good financiering, they succeeded, and by economy in the management of its inner affairs, the lodge has freed itself from debt, its resources being ample to meet all outstanding obligations. The building is a two-story frame house, 22x70 feet, the lodge room being in the upper story, while the ground floor is occupied as a business room. The lodge is in excellent working order, having an active membership of sixty five The present officers are: M. A. Ralstin, N. G.; T. B. Farry, V. G; H. Tipton, P. S.; M. W. Hodge, R. S.; Stephen Pearson, Treas.

Jubilee Lodge, No 195, Daughters of Rebekah, was organized March 18, 1879, in the hall of Bloomingsburg Lodge, No. 516, with the following charter members, viz.: Hugh Bowman, N. J. Clymer, S. H. Farry, E. W. Goodwin, Charles Redinger, Aaron Packer, L. Chapman, Louis H. Windbigler, T. B. Farry, Mrs. Malinda Bowman, Mrs. Klymer, Mrs. Ruth Farry, Mrs. Redinger, Mrs. Packer, Mrs. Chapman, and Mrs. Ely, and from among this number the following officers were elected: Charles Redinger, N. G.; Mrs. Farry, V. G.; H. Windbigler, Sec.; M. E. Chapman, Treas. The ladies have taken an active interest in the welfare of their lodge, and have made it one of the best Rebekah lodges in the county. It is in excellent working order, having between sixty and seventy members. The following ladies occupy the several elective offices of the lodge at the present time: Mrs. Delilah Taylor, N. G.; Mrs. Emma Chapman, V. G.; Miss Hodge, R. S.; Mrs. Hulda Meredith, P. S.; Mrs. J. M. Fish, Treas.

> Re the James Wright I'm seeking:
>James Wright b. 1812 - 1818 place unknown. m Lavina Troxel ca 1836-37; d.
>1844, Jefferson Twp., Fayette Co.,OH.
>Lavina Troxel b. 1813, Fayette Co., OH ; d. 1904 Van Wert Co., OH
>Four children: Didama, Rebecca Ann, James Sylvester, and Martha.
>Lavina was the daughter of John Troxel, b. ?; m. Jane Mc Garry ca 1810. D.
>1838, Fayette Co., OH. Jacob Troxel, relationship unknown, was executor of >the estate. Jane died 30 Dec 1836 in Fayette Co. OH. There were four >children, of which Lavina was the eldest. James Wright became the guardian >of the youngest, Frances Jane, when he and Lavina married.

>Where was James Wright born? According to census enumerations, in Ohio.
>When was James Wright born? (a) on 4 Oct 1832, one Mathias B. Wright* and >one John McKillip became guardians of James Wright, then "a minor over the >age of fourteen". (b) In the 1840 census of Fayette Co., he is listed as >the head of household consisting of one male, 20-30 yrs; one female 20-30 >yrs.; two females under five years. He was born, therefore, between 1812 >and 1818.
>*I have found nothing to establish a blood relationship. M.B. Wright was a >very influential citizen of Fayette County. A county history states that he >arrived in the county with his father circa 1810, migrating from Ross Co.
>Another point: There was a JOhn Wright, a landowner in Jefferson Twp., >Fayette Co. His wife, eleanor, died in 1828 at age 38. In 1830, the land was >sold to an Edward Popejoy, whose wife was a Mc Garry. It's all very >interesting, but I haven't been able to make the proper connections. This >seems to be a twig on the family tree of Wrights. On the other hand, maybe >James Wright was like Topsy, "he just growed".

>Thanks for your interest. I'd appreciate any information.

Benjamin Argust was my ggggrandfather. He came to America with his parents, John and Elizabeth, brother (Lewis) and Uncle (Benjamin) May 18, 1835. John and family migrated to Illinois in 1836. Uncle Benjamin migrated to Pittsburgh, PA. He married Catherine Williams about 1843. The only information I have on the Uncle Ben is from "A History of the Descendants of Richard W. Williams of Angelsea Wales and Indiana County, PA." George Argust, son of John and Elizabeth, was married to Frances (Fannie) Troxell July 19, 1865. After George's death, Fannie married Calab Evans. Tom, are you related to John or Benjamin?

Franklin Grant is listed in the will of John McGary on 11 May 1847 as the son of Sarah M. Grant. The codicil to the will of John McGary, dated 21 Nov 1849, removes the name of Franklin Grant. It can be assumed that Franklin might have been deceased by Nov 1849. A son, Franklin Grant, Jr. was probably born on 23 May 1848 in Knox Co. MO. (see 1850 Census / Knox Co.)

BAYLESS, Alfred Ayers

There have been comparatively few to sound the praise of the brave and sturdy pioneer though he is certainly, deserving of at least a little space in the chronicles of the noble. To him more than to any other is civilization indebted, for it was he that blazed the way and acted as vanguard for the mighty army of progress that within the last century has conquered Indiana's wilderness and transformed it into one of the fairest and most enlightened of the American commonwealths.

One of these sterling pioneers is Alfred Ayers Bayless, a venerable and honored citizen of Frankfort, Clinton county, who has passed his eighty-eighth milepost and is yet hale and hearty because he has lived an active, conservative and even-tempered life, free from the usual vices that wreck so large a portion of mankind. He was for a long lapse of years one of the most widely known contractors and builders in this section of the Hosier (sic) state. He was born in Butler county, Ohio, February 17, 1825. He is a son of Platt and Frances (MCGARY) BAYLESS, the father born in New Jersey in 1794, and the mother born in Kentucky in 1796. The paternal grandparents were New Jersey farmers and on the mother's side were natives of Ireland. Platt Bayless was one of a family of nine children. He and Frances MCGARY were married on March 2, 1812, and to them seven children were born. Platt Bayless was a soldier in the war of I812. After the war he followed farming in the summer time and the shoemaker's trade during the winter months. Major Platt Bayless, an officer in the Revolutionary war and an aide to George Washington, was the great-grandfather of Alfred A. Bayless, of this review. He mortgaged his farm at Baskingridge, New Jersey, in order to obtain means to help support the Patriot army in the field.

Alfred A. Bayless grew up amid early pioneer conditions, and he received only about six weeks schooling in the winter, between corn husking and sugar making time. In 1833, when a small boy, he came with his parents overland from the old home in Ohio, to Tippecanoe county, Indiana, traveling by wagon to Cincinnati, thence by boat down the Ohio river to the mouth of the Wabash, and up the latter stream to Vincennes, where the boat was burned. From there they proceeded by wagon to Tippecanoe county, the trip from Butler county, Ohio, requiring about six weeks. Upon their arrival in Tippecanoe county they had with them the only salt in the county, having brought two barrels with them. The wagons hauling grain to Chicago had gone on their regular trips and had not returned with supplies, about three weeks being required to go to the lake city and return, The family located on a farm about seven miles east of Lafayette, near the village of Dayton. Later the elder Bayless purchased a farm of eighty acres, for which he paid the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. It lay on the line between Tippecanoe and Clinton counties, and this they developed from the woods into a productive farm in due course of time by hard work.

Alfred A. Bayless assisted with the hard work on the home place when a boy, remaining there until he was twenty years of age. He served as an apprentice in a carpenter shop for two years, for which he was paid five dollars a month and board, and the second year ten dollars a month and board. In 1845 he went to Lafayette, where he worked at his trade and received a dollar and twenty-five cents a day. He put in the first plate-glass windows ever used in Lafayette, making the sash for the whole front by hand. He also turned out the first machine-made sash used in that city, the machine having been run by horse-power.

On May 26, 1847, Mr. Bayless married Harriett PARKE, a daughter of John and Elizabeth PARKE, he a native of Pennsylvania, and the mother of New Jersey. Elizabeth PARKE's maiden name was ANDERSON. Mrs. Harriett Bayless is one of a family of four children all still living in 1913.

To Mr. and Mrs. Bayless six children have been born, four of whom are living at this writing: Mrs. C. B. SINE, of Indianapolis; Sylvester, of Memphis, Tennessee; William O., also of Memphis; and Laura E., of Frankfort. Mrs. Sine has two daughters, Mrs. Harry MCLELAND, who has two children, George Edward and Charles Alfred; and Mrs. Edward MAURER, who also has two children, Russell and Frances. Sylvester had three children: Lenora, married to E. C. BAILEY, of Tuscola, Illinois, has two children, twins, David Bayless and Edward Ozias; and Eva, married to J. C. CARSON, of Lafayette, who died, leaving one child, Olive Crooks CARSON. John Alfred Bayless is a clerk in a wholesale grocery in Champaign, Illinois. W. O. Bayless and Laura E. Bayless have remained unmarried. The latter is reporter for the Clinton circuit court.

On Christmas day, 1847, Alfred A. Bayless was working in a pork house in Lafavette at one dollar a day and dinner, unheading barrels. He had his choice of either one hundred pounds of pork tenderloin or one dollar a day in cash. After living in Lafavette two years he removed to Dayton, where he remained until 1869. Then he went to Cass county and engaged in the saw mill business, operating a mill two years, when it was burned. He then moved to Logansport, where did contracting until 1877, in which year he moved to Frankfort, Clinton county. His first contract work here was the Coulter House. He also built the Coulter opera house and many other large buildings in this city, which will long remain as monuments to his skill and honesty as a builder. He built the third ward school building twice. He remained in the carpenter and contracting business with much success, his services being in great demand until 1897, when he retired from contracting owing to advancing age, but retained a work shop in the basement of his home, where he still makes screens and ladders.

Mr. Bayless is a master Mason, being the oldest member of the Frankfort Lodge. He was reared in the Presbyterian faith, and he has attended Sunday school regularly, seldom missing a Sunday for the long period of seventy-seven years, starting when a barefoot boy of eleven years. He still has a testament which he received for memorizing verses when a little boy. In politics, he votes the Prohibition ticket. He is the oldest Bayles (sic) living.

BAYLESS, Samuel O.

BAYLESS, Samuel O.

HON. SAMUEL O. BAYLESS, a prominent member of the Frankfort bar and of the bar of the supreme court of the state, is a son of John N. and Christiana (COSNER) BAYLESS, and was born in Tippecanoe county, Ind., June 24, 1848. John M. Bayless was born in Butler county, Ohio, January 3, 1813, and was the son of Platt and Fannie (McGARY) BAYLESS, who were born and married in New Jersey, where Platt Bayless was engaged in farming. In 1802 they moved to Butler county, Ohio, and there remained until 1833, when they came to Indiana and settled in Tippecanoe county, and in the eastern part of which Platt Bayless entered 160 acres of forest land, which he cleared and cultivated until his death, which occurred in 1856, his widow surviving until 1861. They were the parents of the following children: John M., Sarah Ann, wife of Ezra BUSH, now decassed (sic); Cyrus; Martha J., wife of William H. SIMS, of Mulberry, Clinton county; Platt, of Lincoln, Neb.; and Samuel, who went to Texas before the opening of the late war, and of whom all trace is lost.

John M. Bayless was only twenty years of age when he came to Indiana with his parents. At the age of twenty-one he engaged in shoemaking, at which he worked in the village of Dayton, Tippecanoe county, until 1842, when he purchased land and engaged in farming in same county, which vocation he followed until March, 1879, when he moved to Frankfort and retired from active labor. His first farm comprised eighty acres only, but before he retired he had increased it to 300 acres, and had erected one of the finest farm dwellings in the county. During his residence in Tippecanoe county he assisted in the organization of the Tippecanoe & Clinton county Farmer's Mutual Insurance; was elected its first president and held his position until his retirement from the farm. He was also for a number of years president of the board of trustees of the Dayton seminary. The first marriage of John M. Bayless took place in Tippecanoe county, August 25, 1839, to Harriet Isabella PAIGE, who was a member of the first white family that settled in that county, and was of English extraction, and to this marriage were born three children - two sons who died in infancy, and a daughter, Sarah, who grew to maturity, but now is also deceased. The mother of these children died November 3, 1845. The second marriage of John M. Bayless took place, in Tippecanoe county, July 25, 1847, to Christiana Cosner, a native of Virginia, born July 6, 1826, and the daughter of Adam and Margaret (MICHAELS) COSNER. To this felicitous union were born eight children, all of whom are deceased save two - Samuel O., the subject proper of this sketch, and John Q., of Frankfort. The greatly lamented John M. Bayless departed this life, at Frankfort, October 3d, 1892. In his religious belief he was a life-long and consistent Universalist; never bitter in the advocacy of his views, but broad and comprehensive in his love for mankind, with charity and tolerance for all. He was a Mason, belonging to the Dayton lodge, of which he was an active member at the time of his death. This lodge had charge of the burial ceremonies. In politics Mr. Bayless was a republican from the organization of that party. At the beginning of the war, having passed the age of active service, he was appointed and served as enrolling officer in Tippecanoe county. He was an ardent union and anti-slavery man and rendered material assistance to the cause. Mr. Bayless was a kind, gentle and genial companion, a true steadfast friend, and honest man free from deception of any kind. His integrity was spotless and irreproachable.

Samuel O. Bayless, the subject of this biography, was reared on the home farm, alternating his labor with study. His preliminary education was received at the common schools of Tippecanoe county, supplemented by a course of one year in the high school of Frankfoot (sic), Clinton county, and a year at Lombard University, Galesburg, ILL., where he took a special course in political economy. In October, 1868, at the age of twenty, he entered the law department of the Michigan university at Ann Arbor, and up to this time had never entered a court room nor even read a law book. After a course of two years, he graduated (March 27, 1870), and went to Selma, Ala., where he practiced until the fall of the same year, when he settled in Frankfort, Ind., where he has met with a success unrivaled. In 1871 he formed a co-partnership with Judge J. SUIT. This partnership continued until January 1, 1873, when the partnership was discontinued and he practiced alone until November, 1874.At that time he associated himself in the practice with Hon. A. E. PAIGE, under the firm-name Paige and Bayless. This partnership continued until the election of Mr. Paige to the position of judge of the Clinton circuit court, in October, 1884. The firm did a large and lucrative business during the years of its existence. In May, 1885, he associated with him W. H. RUSSELL. Esq., under the firm name Bayless and Russell. This partnership continued one year and again, in January, 1889, Charles G. GUENTHER became the partner of Mr. Bayless, under the firm name of Bayless & Guenther. This relations still exists. To revert, however, to the initiatory practice of Mr. Bayless in Frankfort, it may be mentioned that it was soon manifest that Mr. Bayless had a peculiar faculty for handling legal affairs of corporations. He was selected as local attorney for the railroad companies then constructing their lines through the county, and his reputation was soon established on a permanency, and his corporation business has steadily and rapidly increased from year to year, until he now stands without a peer in Indiana in this particular class of litigation.

In 1884 he accepted the position of general attorney for the Indianapolis and Chicago division of the Monon route, or Louisville, New Albany & Chicago railway company, which position he held two years; in 1886 he was appointed general attorney for the Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City, or "Clover Leaf" railroad company, for Indiana, which office he held until 1892, when he accepted the position of assistant general solicitor for the same company, and had entire charge of the litigation of the company in Indiana and Illinois; in May, 1893, he was appointed assistant general counsel for the receiver of this company, which position he still holds. Mr. Bayless is also special attorney for the Logansport and Terre Haute division of the Vandalia line, and the local attorney with the Lake Erie & Western railroad company. Mr. Bayless is also called upon frequently to act as counsel for the "Big Four", or Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis company, as well as for the Wabash company as local counsel. Beside his railroad connection, he is attorney for the Central Union Telephone company in Indiana, and has been the counsel for the water-works, gas and other corporations at Frankfort. In March, 1894, he was admitted to the bar of the United States supreme court.

Mr. Bayless was most happily united in marriage, in Clinton county, Novenber 21, 1872, to Miss Emma D. Clark, daughter of Dr. John M. and Sarah V. (GILKERSON) CLARK, prominent residents of Clinton county. This lady was born August 18, 1852, is highly accomplished, and is a member of the Presbyterian church. Two children have blessed this union, and are named Coralyn C. and Florence G. Mr. Bayless is a thirty-second degree Mason, a K. of P., a member of the I. O. R. M. and the B. & P. O. E. In politics he is a republican, and in 1874 was elected mayor of Frankfort, and filled the office for three consecutive terms of two years each. For a number of years he was the chairman of the republican county central committee, and a member of the republican state central committee. His name has frequently been mentioned as a candidate for the position of congressman on the republican ticket in this congressional district. This, however, he has always declined on account of his extensive law practice. It is needless here to comment upon the career or character of such a man as Samuel O. Bayless.

CYRUS BAYLESS is a representative of one of the old and honored pioneer families to Tippecanoe County, a son of PLATT BAYLESS, who was born and reared in the State of New Jersey. When a young man, PLATT BAYLESS removed with his father, SAMUEL BAYLESS, to Ohio, the latter living in Butler County, that State, until his death. PLATT BAYLESS learned the trade of a shoemaker, but his life occupation was farming. He was married in Ohio, to MISS FANNY McCARY, a lady of Irish descent, and of the eight children born to them, five yet survive -- SARAH ANN, wife of EZRA BUSH, of Tippecanoe, Indiana; CYRUS, the subject of this sketch; JOHN and ALFRED, living in Frankfort, this State; MARTHA JANE, wife of WILLIAM H. SIMS, of Thorntown, Indiana; PLATT a resident of Lincoln, Nebraska. The father lived in Butler County, Ohio, until the fall of 1832 when he came to Tippecanoe County, Indiana, on horse-back, to see the country, returning to Ohio the same fall, and in the latter part of March, 1833, he started with his family from Cincinnati by boat down the Ohio to the mouth of the Wabash, then up the Wabash to Vincennes. The low water of the Wabash very much delayed their progress, and on reaching Vincennes, he was compelled to hire teams to take them the remainder of the journey, being on the way two months before reaching La Fayette. This place was then a small village, much of the present site of the city being covered with timber.

PLATT BAYLESS, like most of the early settlers, was not possessed of a large share of this world's goods, and the expenses of the journey to this county had exhausted his supply of cash to such an extent that he decided to rent land for a hile instread of buying as he at first intended to do. He accordingly lived on a rented farm near Dayton for three years, and during this time he purchased the land that afterward became his homestead, which is now occupied by his son CYRUS. In 1836 he settled on this land with his family, their first dwelling on this place being a small log cabin, erected by the sons, CYRUS and ALFRED.
The family occupied this cabin until the following spring, and at once began the task of clearing the land, enduring many of the hardships and privations incident to pioneer life. Deprived of all the conveniences of the present day the old pioneers bore their part bravely, and the present generation are reaping the results of their toil. Here PLATT BAYLESS lived and labored to make a home for his family, until his death, which occurred in 1852, his widow surviving several years. Both were honored and respected members of society, and are still remembered by the early settlers.

CYRUS BAYLESS, whose name heads this sketch, was born in Butler County, Ohio, August 11, 1821, being twelve years of age when he came with his parents to Tippecanoe County. He was reared amid the wild surroundings of pioneer life, and has a clear remembrance of the country as it looked fifty years ago. he has witnessed the many wonderful changes that have transpired during this time, and has always taken an active interest in its development. He was reared to the vocation of a farmer, his youth being spent in assisting his father clear and improve the homestead which he now occupies. At the age of twenty-one years he went to Dayton to learn the cooper's trade, which he followed about seven years, working in Dayton and La Fayette. He was married March 28, 1844, to MISS CAROLINE CORY, born in Ohio, in 1824, a daughter of DANIEL W. and ELIZABETH (MOREHOUSE) CORY, early settlers of this county. MR. CORY came with his family from Carlisle, Clarke County, Ohio, to Tippecnoe County, Indiana, in 1836, and settled in La Fayette, where he kept the American Hotel for a time, and later the Wabash House, near the present site of the Lahr House. His wife, the mother of MRS. CORY, died in Ohio, in 1834, and he was subsequently married to JULIA A. CLOSPILL, who is still living. MR. CORY died in La Fayette, in 1845. By his first marriage he had eleven children, all of whom are deceased but MRS. BAYLESS. By his second marriage he had two children, they also being deceased. MR. BAYLESS after the death of this father, bought the home farm of 119 acres, which is one of the best farms in his neighborhood. He has a fine brick residence, erected in 1861, and his barns and other farm buildings are correspondingly good. Here he and his wife are surrounded with all the comforts of life, happy in the consciousness of a useful and well spent life. Both are liberal in their religious views, they and their family being members of the Universalist church. They are the parents of five children -- LOTT, HARRIET, PLATT, MARTHA S. and FRANCES C., all married but MARTHA. In politics MR. BAYLESS is a Republican, and is classed among the representative men of his township.

PLATT BAYLESS, like most of the early settlers, was not possessed of a large share of this world's goods, and the expenses of the journey to this county had exhausted his supply of cash to such an extent that he decided to rent land for a time instead of buying as he at first intended to do. He accordingly lived on a rented farm near Dayton for three years, and during this time he purchased the land that afterward became his homestead, which is now occupied by his son CYRUS. The family occupied this cabin until the following spring, and at once began the task of clearing the land, enduring many of the hardships and privations incident to pioneer life. Deprived of all the conveniences of the present day the old pioneers bore their part bravely, and the present generation are reaping the results of their toil. Here PLATT BAYLESS lived and labored to make a home for his family, until his death, which occurred in 1852, his widow surviving several years. Both were honored and respected members of society, and are still remembered by the early settlers.

CYRUS BAYLESS, whose name heads this sketch, was born in Butler County, Ohio, August 11, 1821, being twelve years of age when he came with his parents to Tippecanoe County. He was reared amid the wild surroundings of pioneer life, and has a clear remembrance of the country as it looked fifty years ago. he has witnessed the many wonderful changes that have transpired during this time, and has always taken an active interest in its development. He was reared to the vocation of a farmer, his youth being spent in assisting his father clear and improve the homestead which he now occupies. At the age of twenty-one years he went to Dayton to learn the cooper's trade, which he followed about seven years, working in Dayton and La Fayette. He was married March 28, 1844, to MISS CAROLINE CORY, born in Ohio, in 1824, a daughter of DANIEL W. and ELIZABETH (MOREHOUSE) CORY, early settlers of this county. MR. CORY came with his family from Carlisle, Clarke County, Ohio, to Tippecanoe County, Indiana, in 1836, and settled in La Fayette, where he kept the American Hotel for a time, and later the Wabash House, near the present site of the Lahr House. His wife, the mother of MRS. CORY, died in Ohio, in 1834, and he was subsequently married to JULIA A. CLOSPEL, who is still living. MR. CORY died in La Fayette, in 1845. Platt "lived in Butler County, Ohio, until the fall of 1832 when he came to Tippecanoe County, Indiana, on horse-back, to see the country, returning to Ohio the same fall, and in the latter part of March, 1833, he started with his family from Cincinnati by boat down the Ohio to the mouth of the Wabash, then up the Wabash to Vincennes. The low water of the Wabash very much delayed their progress, and on reaching Vincennes, he was compelled to hire teams to take them the remainder of the journey, being on the way two months before reaching La Fayette. This place was then a small village, much of the present site of the city being covered with timber. Platt Bayless, like most of the early settlers, was not possessed of a large share of this world's goods, and the expenses of the journey to this county had exhausted his supply of cash to such an extent that he decided to rent land for a while instead of buying as he at first intended to do. He accordingly lived on a rented farm near Dayton for three years, and during this time he purchased the land that afterward became his homestead, which is now occupied by his son Cyrus (00030). In 1836 he settled on this land with his family, their first dwelling on this place being a small log cabin, erected by the sons, Cyrus and Alfred (13963). The family occupied this cabin until the following spring, and at once began the task of clearing the land, enduring many of the hardships and privations incident to pioneer life. Deprived of all the conveniences of the present day the old pioneers bore their part bravely, and the present generation are reaping the results of their toil. Here Platt Bayless lived and labored to make a home for his family, until his death, which occurred in 1852, his widow surviving several years." (02510)

Another version: "In 1833, when a small boy (Alfred Ayers Bayless (13963)), he came with his parents (Platt Bayless (00032) and Francis (McGary) Bayless (00033)) overland from the old home in Ohio, to Tippecanoe county, Indiana, traveling by wagon to Cincinnati, thence by boat down the Ohio river to the mouth of the Wabash, and up the latter stream to Vincennes, where the boat was burned. From there they proceeded by wagon to Tippecanoe county, the trip from Butler county, Ohio, requiring about six weeks. Upon their arrival in Tippecanoe county they had with them the only salt in the county, having brought two barrels with them. The wagons hauling grain to Chicago had gone on their regular trips and had not returned with supplies, about three weeks being required to go to the lake city and return, The family located on a farm about seven miles east of Lafayette, near the village of Dayton. Later the elder Bayless (Platt (00032)) purchased a farm of eighty acres, for which he paid the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. It lay on the line between Tippecanoe and Clinton counties, and this they developed from the woods the present site of the city being covered with timber. From there they proceeded by wagon to Tippecanoe county, the trip from Butler county, Ohio, requiring about six weeks. Upon their arrival in Tippecanoe county they had with them the only salt in the county, having brought two barrels with them. The wagons hauling grain to Chicago had gone on their regular trips and had not returned with supplies, about three weeks being required to go to the lake city and return, The family located on a farm about seven miles east of Lafayette, near the village of Dayton. Later the elder Bayless (Platt (00032)) purchased a farm of eighty acres, for which he paid the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. It lay on the line between Tippecanoe and Clinton counties, and this they developed from the woods into a productive farm in due course of time by hard work." (02717)

McGARY, ISAAC

Biography:

McGARY, ISAAC -- Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, January 19, 1800. In the Headright Certificate issued to him February 1, 1838, for one labor of land, he having previously received a league, by the Fort Bend County Board, it is stated that he came to Texas in January, 1830.

Mr. McGary's name was omitted from the official San Jacinto rolls as printed in 1836. He was issued Donation Certificate No. 125 for 640 acres of land October 13, 1848, for having participated in the Battle of San Jacinto. He received Bounty Certificate No. 2083 for 640 acres of land for having served in the army from April 16 to November 24, 1836. At San Jacinto he was a member of Captain William Kimbro's Company.

Mr. McGary died June 21, 1866, at Bolivar Point and was buried in old Magnolia Cemetery at Galveston. A headstone was erected at his grave but was washed away by the tropical storm in 1900 and his grave is now lost. Following is a copy of a petition signed by Mr. McGary at Huntsville, Texas, September 27, 1841. The original is among the Memorials and Petitions, Archives, Texas State Library: "To the honorable Congress of the Republic of Texas. Your petitioner approaches your honorable body with full confidence in the justness of his claim and also in your disposition to do justice, having purchased Lots from the Government of the City of Austin to the amount of $2540 dollars, and paid three payments thereon which will be seen by reference to the Books of the Secretary of Treasury, and will in May and August next be bound to pay 635 dollars or forfeit all previous payments, and be liable for 635 dollars and a forfeiture of the property, and having funded all my means and the last Congress having made no appropriation for paying interest on funded debt leaves me at your mercy. Your petitioner has been a citizen of Texas for 16 years, fought at San Jacinto and other places, and all the means acquired during that time together with his headright League of Land is in funded debt, and on the first day of September now past there was due me 1010 dollars, therefore I respectfully ask an offset. Your humble petitioner asks not for mercy but justice at your hands." ISAAC McGARY--No. 19 Sept. 27, 1841 (Memorials and Petitions) PETITION To the honorable (sic) Congress of the Republic of Texas, your petitioner approaches your honourable (sic) body with full confidence in the justness of his claims, and also in your disposition to do justice, having purchased Lots from the Government (sic) in the City of Austin to the amount of 2540 dollars, and paid three payments thereon which will be seen by Reference to the Books of the Secretary of Treasury, and will in May and August next be bound to pay 635 dollars as forfeit all previous payments, and be liable for 635 dollars and a forfeiture of the property, and having made no appropriation for paying Interest on funded debt leaves me at your mercy. Austin^{qv} and fought at the battle of San Jacinto,^{qv} after which he helped guard Antonio López de Santa Anna.^{qv} McGary received a donation land grant for his participation in the battle, and his name is on the San Jacinto monument. He also served as a private under Capt. James Gillaspie^{qv} in the Mexican War.^{qv} His name is on the Gillaspie Memorial Marker in Huntsville. McGary served as sheriff of Montgomery County in 1843. When Walker County was formed, he was elected the first county clerk. He served in this capacity from 1846 to 1852. In 1854 he was chief justice of Walker County. McGary was a Mason in Forest Lodge No. 19. In the 1850 census he is listed as fifty years old, married to Elizabeth (Visier), a French immigrant, age thirty-four. Three children are listed. (unproven that the above I. McGary is Isaac, but the age and location of birth are consistent with what is know about Isaac.)
1866 Isaac McGary died this year in Galveston, Texas while on a business trip and was buried in Soldier's Rest Cemetery in Galveston (Handbook of Texas Online)

1866 Isaac McGary died 21 June 1866 at Bolivar Point and was buried in Old Magnolia Cemetery in Galveston. A headstone was erected at his grave but was washed away by the tropical storm in 1900 and his grave is now lost (San Jacinto Veteran's page)

Sure there are many, many more references to this man which are not included in the above. My big question is.....where were the children in 1860. This is a mystery.

Isaac's third wife, Elizabeth Viser Word, had a daughter Sara Elizabeth Word from her first marriage. My daughter is descended from Sara, who returned to Somerville, Tennessee after her mother died in 1852 and married John Burtis. I am trying to find out more information about Elizabeth, where she came from, how she came to marry Isaac and where, etc. Any help would be appreciated.

Dear Mary...

I'm interested in your Isaac, also. I have McGarys in the Republic of Texas who do not seem to be related to Isaac, but I've always wondered if there wasn't a connection. Bridget McGary, Sarah McGary McKisick, Eleanor McGary Lawrence, Elizabeth McGary Friar, and Edward McGary. There is a Republic of Texas Claims Website. I don't know if you've seen it.

Hi Brownie,
I have read your posts concerning your McGary family and have often wondered if we had a connection. With what little I know of Isaac McGary, I just cannot make a tie-in. Isaac McGary was the brother of my great-great-great grandmother, Martha "Patsey" McGary Popejoy (wife of Edward Popejoy). Martha was born 19 Jul 1795 in KY (per census). Their parents were John McGary, born ca 1752 in Ireland (per 1850 census) and died in Aug 1850 in Indiana / Francis "Fanny", born unknown and died 20 Nov 1837 (buried in Higbee Cemetery, Fayette Co. OH). On the 1850 census, John McGary, age 98, United Brethren Preacher is living with his grandson, Sanford Gordon in Marshall Co. IN. The children of John and Francis "Fanny" McGary are (not in birth order):

Jane McGary m Frederick Troxel / 15 Oct 1807 / Butler Co. OH
Sarah M. McGary m Unknown Grant
Eleanor McGary m Unknown Gordon
Francis "Fanny" McGary m Platt Bayless / 1 Apr 1812 / Butler Co. OH
Martha "Patsey" McGary m Edward Popejoy / 13 Jan 1814 / Butler Co. OH
Elizabeth "Betsey" McGary m John Martin / 30 Jan 1812 / Butler Co. OH
Isaac McGary m # 1 - Eleanor Markland, dau of Matthew (deeds confirm this marriage) marriage date unknown m # 2 - Elinor Powell on 14 Jan 1830 / Austin Co. TX (divorced ??)
m # 3 - Elizabeth B. Word on 17 Feb 1842 / Montgomery Co. TX

The Handbook of Texas Online states that Isaac McGary married Elizabeth Visier, a French immigrant. The 1850 census clearly states that she was born in Tennessee as was her apparent daughter, Sarah Word age 14, listed in the census of Walker Co. TX (pages 276B-277).
Tried to look at the Republic of Texas Claims Website, but it must have been very busy and was unable to get past page one. I will try again another day, but what I saw was quite interesting.
I have noted the name of Isaac McGary in several historical and genealogical publications.....with only usually a mention of his friendship with Sam Houston and Stephen Austin, etc.
Have done a time-line for Isaac, which I will send by separate e-mail.
Keep in touch,

MCGARY, AUSTIN (1846-1928). Austin (Aus) McGary, minister, journalist, and lawman, was born at Huntsville, Texas, on February 6, 1846, the son of Isaac and Elizabeth (Visier) McGary. He spent his boyhood at Huntsville. Part of his early education was under three preachers of the Church of Christ-the brothers Benton, Thomas, and Basil Sweeney. McGary was also associated with the family of Joseph A. Clark,[qv] especially Addison and Randolph Clark,[qqv] with whom he joined the Confederate Army. He served in the Huntsville Grays with Sam Houston, Jr.[qv] He was elected sheriff of Madison County in 1872 and served almost two terms before resigning to become conveying agent for the Texas State Penitentiary at Huntsville.[qv] In two years of conveying condemned prisoners and desperadoes he never lost a man. As sheriff, McGary neither owned nor carried a gun. He had become a Christian years earlier and used instead what he claimed was the best two-barreled weapon: the Old Testament and the New Testament. By the time he became a member of the Church of Christ in 1881, he was thirty-five years old and had already lived a colorful life. He soon began preaching and became a journalist. The character Praxiteles Swan in John W. Thomason's[qv] The Lone Star Preacher (1941) is based on tales Thomason heard about Austin McGary.

McGary moved to Austin in 1883 and, prompted by what he saw and heard at a state meeting of representatives of the Church of Christ at Bryan in June 1884, established the Firm Foundation[qv] in September of that year. In the first number he declared the paper's intent: "to oppose everything in the work and worship of the church, for which there was not a command or an apostolic example or a necessary scriptural inference." McGary wrote mostly on controversial issues in a style seldom equalled, and his influence became widespread among many preachers in the Churches of Christ. After he relinquished control of the Firm Foundation, he moved to California and then to Oregon before returning to Texas. He published other periodicals-The Lookout and The Open Arena. McGary married Narcissus Jenkins in 1866, and the couple had two children. Narcissus died in 1872, and in 1875 McGary married Lucie Kitrell, who bore him nine children. After Lucie's death in 1897, McGary married Lillian Otey. He died on June 15, 1928, in Houston and was buried beside his mother in Huntsville.

Biographical Sketch On The Life Of Austin McGary

Additional Children and Spouses

AUSTIN McGARY was born at Huntsville, Texas, February 6, 1846. His father settled in Texas at an early day, fought in the battle of San Jacinto, and guarded Santa Anna the night after he was captured. He -was also Sheriff of Montgomery County, Texas, in the turbulent times of long ago, and for twenty years was County Clerk of Walker County, Texas. He was a candidate for the Legislature on the Sam. Houston ticket in 1858, but his opponent defeated him by the close margin of three votes, in the counties of Grimes, Madison, and Walker. He died in 1866. The mother of A. McGary died when he was a child.

In his twentieth year be was married to Miss Cyrene Jenkins, who was then sixteen years old. She bad two children -a son and a daughter. The daughter is dead, and the son, Wigfall McGary lives in New Mexico. She died in 1873, and in 18'15 he was married to Miss Lucie Kitrell, who bore nine children, three of whom are now dead. She was noted especially for the strength of her faith, the purity of her life, and the constancy and fervor of her zeal as a Christian. She encouraged her husband in every way she could to be a Christian and preach the gospel, and no sacrifice was too great, no burden too heavy, for her to assume cheerfully and gladly to help him in the work of the Lord. She died on June 1, 1897, and her dying request was that he devote his whole life to preaching the gospel.

On June 26, 1898, he was married to Miss Lillian Otey, of Huntsville, Texas, whom he has known since she was a child. He is a man of strong convictions and ~ indomitable energy, and by Perseverance he has made his way through life against formidable obstacles. When he was about thirty years old, he served two years as Sheriff of Madison" County, Texas, and made considerable reputation as an efficient officer. In the line of his official duties he arrested some of the most notorious outlaws in Texas in the days when Texas probably had as fine specimens of courageous, defiant, and dangerous desperadoes as could be found anywhere. For arresting two men. he received a reward of five hundred dollars in each case, and in many other cases he received smaller rewards for making. arrests. He resigned his office as Sheriff of Madison County and took charge of the work for the State to transport convicted prisoners to the penitentiary. In this service he spent most of his time on the border between Texas and Mexico, where the State had to deal with desperate men. He was assigned to this duty because he was known to be a mail who could be relied upon many emergency which demanded coolness, courage, and unwavering fidelity. He had to transport to the penitentiary prisoners who were convicted at the forts.

There were no railroads in Western Texas in those days, and he, therefore, had to take his prisoners

Once you cross the railroad track you'll come to a traffic light (Sometimes it blinks as a caution or stop light). Turn left and get into the right lane. At the next traffic light turn right on to Ave. F. The next street will 9th St. You will need to go just past 9th St. and turn left into the cemetery. Park in curve under the old cedar tree. Take the gravel path next to the tree, and go down the path as if you are going to the grave of Sam Houston. Just before the path becomes paved go off to your right and look for the plot. It is facing west. In front of the plot is another plot with and Iron fence surrounding it.

across the plains by private conveyance through a country infested by wild Indians and organized bands of desperadoes. On some of those long trips he had as many as eight prisoners, and only one assistant. He -camped on the prairies at night, and often traveled several days in succession without seeing any one but his assistant and his prisoners. He had to guard his convicts day and night, and at the same time be constantly on the alert to avoid hostile Indians and bands of desperadoes, who sometimes followed him, on the watch for an opportunity to rescue their friends from his custody. He served the State in this work two years, and never lost a prisoner. Every convict committed to him was safely landed in the penitentiary. His religious experience began rather late in life. In boyhood and early manhood he was wayward, and at thirty-five lie was a skeptic.

He became interested in religion, and, with a desire to know the truth, be decided to carefully investigate the evidences of Christianity. Carrying out this purpose, lie began to study the arguments, pro and con, in the Campbell and Owen debate. While he was reading this book, be heard Harry Hamilton preach a series of sermons at Madisonville, Texas. Being convinced by what he read and heard that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, he was baptized by Brother Hamilton, December 24, 1881. Soon after he was baptized be began to preach, and on September 1, 1884, he published the first number of the Firm Foundation, a weekly paper issued from Austin, Texas, which now has 9,700 subscribers. He has been the senior editor of this paper from the time it was started to the present. He has also preached extensively in Texas, and has made several tours into other States. His paper has a general circulation in all the States of the South, and many subscribers in other parts of the United States. In addition to his work .as editor and preacher, be has successfully managed some important business enterprises.

Bob,
The pictures and diskettes arrived in yesterday's mail and I am very pleased that you would share them with me. Please let me know how much money I should send for your effort.
This is the first picture of a McGary that I have seen. My 3rd great-grandmother, Martha "Patsey" McGary (sister to Fannie's father, Isaac McGary) lived to an old age, but no known pictures have been located. Most of the family remained in Ohio, with some to Indiana. I have never made contact with any of those McGarys.
Do you have the Civil War pension papers for Fannie McGary Gillespie?. I recently received them. They are quite informative and will copy them for you if you do not have them. Several hand written letters are included in the files from Martha, Kate and Fannie pertaining to Fannie's pension.
So sorry to hear of your family loss. Indeed, it does take time to get through all of that and I doubt that one ever completely gets through the entire ordeal.
Thanks again,
Mary R. M. Nunneley

Mary,
In addition to the pictures copied at WalMart, I'm sending scanned images on diskette. The scans were done at a high dpi so that you can make them any size you wish. I like a free program called "IrFanView" which can be downloaded at:
http://www.irfanview.com/
With IrFanView you can shrink/expand images and print the size you wish.

On the back of the picture of Fannie sitting in the chair is written, "Fannie McGary Gillespie, wife of James Wright. Kate Gillespie Hopkins Mother". This was written by my mother as told to her by Martha J. Gillespie, my great aunt.

On the back of the picture of Fannie at the piano is written,
"Fannie McGary Gillespie, wife of James Wright Gillespie".
I don't recognize the handwriting here.

I'm sorry it took so long; my wife and I went on vacation to Boston for a couple of weeks, but while there, my daughter-in-law was killed in a car wreck. It took a while to get through all of that.

P.S. 10 days ago, our priest (I'm Episcopalian) attended a get together at which he met the Bishop of the Diocese of West Texas. When our priest mentioned that he was from Columbus, TX, the Bishop's wife said that she was related to the Gillespie's of Columbus. I'm trying to contact her via e-mail to see if we can trade information.
They are only a couple of hours away in San Antonio and I would dearly love to meet her.

Mary, thanks again. Are you researching any of the Gillespie clan? I am living on 274 acres of the Wright Plantation (later the Gillespie plantation). I have a transcription of the last will and testament of Julia Wright Gillespie, copies of deeds where the Gillespie children sold off their portions of the inheritance, pictures of the Gillespie Stone House in TN (built in 1792). Also the e-mail address of a black man in Chicago whose grandmother claimed to be the child of Andrew Jackson Gillespie from the plantation in TN.
James W. Gillespie had two (2) brothers named Andrew Jackson Gillespie, Jr., the first of whom died in infancy. I am descended from the second Andrew Jackson Gillespie.
Following are some notes from my cousins, the Hopkins;
==

Andrew Jackson Gillespie
8 March 1814 - 25 June 1868

Andrew Jackson Gillespie (1) was born 8 March 1814 in Washington County, East Tennessee, the son of James Gillespie and his wife Martha Montgomery. When he was very young his family moved to Madison County, Mississippi where he was reared. As a young man he studied law and later moved to New Orleans. He was a commission merchant at New Orleans when he married Julia Ann Wright, daughter of Dr. James Wright and his wife Joannah Philpott 13 February 1844. His wedding suit was made by Andrew Johnson, a tailor, who later became president of the United States. Shortly after their marriage, Dr. James Wright, Julia's father gave them a plantation near Somerville, Tennessee, where they moved and their 11 children were born.
Their two older sons James and Thomas fought in the Civil War, after war was over the south was in such a condition that there were no creditable schools. The family would not send them to schools in the North so Jim and Tom were sent to Heidelburg, Germany and Oxford, England to be given a classical education.
In 1866, A.J. Gillespie, Julia Ann and the younger children came to Texas to live with Dr. Wright and to help him manage his plantation. At the time Dr. Wright was nearly 70 years old and his other daughter Mary E. Wright Donnell and son Thomas Griffin Wright had recently died. Shortly after the Gillespies arrived Dr. Wright's ex-son-in-law moved out of the Wright home and filed suit against Dr. Wright for "services rendered". Dr. Wright died 1 February 1867. In the early summer of 1868, Andrew Jackson Gillespie returned to Somerville, Tennessee to attend to business were he died 25 June 1868.
After her father's death and her husband Andrew Jackson Gillespie died, the suit by Thomas Donnell was continued. Her two older sons returned from Europe to assist in managing the plantation. The Colorado River over-flowed in 1869 and flooded the Mansion House as well as most of the plantation. Julia, the servants and the children moved into the upper floor of the house, and it has been said that most of the Gillespie children learned to swim in the living room of the Mansion. Julia finally settled with Thomas Donnell and gave him the half of the plantation next to the river, which included the house, the gin and most of the Negro cabins. Julia Ann and the children moved to Alleyton and later in 1872 they moved to Dallas, where the younger children continued their education.
Julia Ann Gillespie bought 200 acres of land in North Dallas which proved to be an excellent investment. The land was divided into five and ten acre tracts and sold for building sites. It was a beautiful piece of land, later called Oak Lawn where fine residences were built.
Allen C. and William E. became doctors in Dallas and John P. became a lawyer in Dallas. Thomas returned to Tennessee to live, James married and moved to Madisonville. Martha married J. T. Sale and moved to California and Hope married W. O. Victor moving to Wharton. A. J. Gillespie married and moved back to the farm in Colorado County. Julia Ann Wright died at the home of her daughter Hope Gillespie Victor in Wharton 8 December 1897 where she is buried.

Mary, see! Your are already straightening out my mis-information. According to what data I had, James died 7/10/1907. Following are some notes from the Hopkins - James Gillespie Hopkins and his wife Mary Elizabeth (Youens) Hopkins - both are cousins of mine.

James Gillespie owned 320 acres, north and east of the Gillespie Ranch.
(Originally part of the Wright Plantation/Gillespie Ranch)

Buried in Veterans' Cemetery, San Antonio, TX - per James Hopkins. James and Mary Elizabeth found his tombstone in the cemetery even though it had fallen over (luckily it fell face up). They had it restored and photographed for Mary Elizabeth's records.

An old family story relates that James moved to El Paso where he bought cattle from Pancho Villa for $1.00 a head and trekked them to Kansas where they were sold for $4.00 each. When Pancho wanted a more equitable split, James had the military come out and attack Pancho on the next trip. Pancho had stolen the cattle from the richer Mexicans.

In some way, James' descendants married into the McKnight family, e.g. Frank McKnight had Julia Ann (Wright) Gillespie's bible. James Hopkins alleges that Mrs. McKnight "stole" the bible and wouldn't allow anyone else to touch it. Consequently the copied pages were very difficult to obtain.

I would appreciate it if you would send me a transcription of his obituary.
The "copied pages" mentioned above were births and deaths pages from Julia Ann (Wright) Gillespie's bible. Back when these copies were obtained, copying was extremely poor and the copied pages are very dark/dim and difficult to read.

JAMES WRIGHT GILLESPIE.

James W. Gillespie, whose death occurred at his home in San Antonio, Tex., on July 9, 1910, was a native of Tennessee. He was born on the old family plantation in Fayette County on November 2, 1844, a son of Andrew Jackson and Julia Wright Gillespie. The Gillespies were an old and prominent Tennessee family, well known in the early history of that State. On his father's side he was descended from the Virginia Edmondsons, Gen. Edmondson Jones, of Confederate fame, being a cousin. On the maternal side William Gillespie was descended from the Wrights of North Carolina and the Philpotts. During the war he served with distinction as a member of the 7th Tennessee Cavalry, under Forrest. After the war he completed his education in Europe, spending some time at Heidelberg, Germany, and Oxford, England. Upon returning to America he went with his family to Texas and settled in Colorado County. Later he removed o Dallas, and there married Miss Fannie McGary in 1873. In 1895 he became a resident of San Antonio, and had been one of the most active members of the Albert Sidney Johnston Camp, U. C. V., of that place. He had been interested for years in the land and mining business. Surviving him are his three daughters and two sons, five brothers and two sisters.

Comrade Gillespie was known extensively over Texas and loved for his genial, kindly personality. He was a true type of the courteous Southern gentleman, a consistent Christian. His friends were numbered among all classes.

I might try that DNA thing. Can't tell from anything, though, how it would establish descent from an individual without comparing it to a "proven" descendant.

I've been moping about with a swollen eyelid and runny nose. The eyelid thing must be one of them there sties and the runny nose must be allergies. Neither is bad enough to give me an excuse to not mow the grass--at least for very long--so I can't see what use they are.

As to Evelyn, she eventually got over the pancreatitis (knock wood) after periods of improvement and worsening but then injured her back and sciatic nerve which pretty much immobilized her. She seems to be about over that, however, but we shall see. She's had her own apartment for a couple of years now. She hopes to stay in good enough health long enough to get a job of some sort and get on with her life. I hope so, too!

The other kids are in good health. Liz is in her third and final year of a program at Texas A&M which will result in her being a landscape architect, whatever that is, and Matt is questioning his decision to get a PhD in entomology at U. of Ariz. and starting to think maybe a MS would be enough. Says he likes teaching but doesn't like research. He's getting married in April. He'll be thirty-one then, nearly an adult. Liz says you can make a lot of money as a landscape architect. I sure hope so.

Kind regards to you and himself
Cuzzin Joe

Bob,
Such a good story about the Gillespie family. As far as the black Gillespie, sure you know such was not a rare happening in the early southern states. If Andrew Jackson Gillespie did not acknowledge the child, the relationship would be hard to prove. In some cases, those children were acknowledged. I have helped a man in our city work on his genealogy and he was lucky enough to have a copy of the will of the white man who did name his black child as one of the heirs. This is unusual and really helped the man with his research.
My main interest is in James Wright Gillespie who married Francis "Fannie" McGary.
I do not know the names of all of their children. Seems they had five and the only ones I know are:

Allan Gillespie
Kate (probably married John J. Hopkins)
Stella
Francis (married Arthur McKnight)

I was doing research on Isaac McGary who was born in Ohio and very early to TX. He was a brother of my 3rd great-grandmother, Martha McGary Popejoy of Ohio. Isaac married three times, but have only found children by his last wife Elizabeth Word. Those children, all born in TX were:

Marion McGary (male) born ca 1843 - nothing known Austin McGary born 6 Feb 1846 (a famous TX preacher) married three times
Rachel McGary born ca 1849 - nothing known Francis "Fannie" McGary born ca 1851 (married James Wright Gillespie)

The marriage of Fannie and James Gillespie is how I became interested in the Gillespie family.
There is quite a lot on the internet concerning Isaac McGary and his son, Austin McGary.
